

Front Ground-Floor Window

The proposed front elevation retains the existing sash window design.

If the existing timber sash window cannot be repaired, it will be replaced on a like-for-like basis with a traditional timber sash window of the same design and proportions.